

On 1 January 2017, SPIE is concentrating all of its French maintenance businesses in a single new subsidiary, SPIE Facilities. The new company is set to be a major player in building maintenance and facility management.

SPIE Facilities will offer bespoke solutions to help its clients meet the technological, energy and environmental needs of their buildings.

Our mission

Work closely with our clients to create innovative services that maximise the performance of buildings and ensure the well-being of their occupants.

Our goal

Provide a high-performance, responsible and locally based service that combines service quality with technical expertise.
