2006 results - Strong growth and a strategy with promise for the future

Having rediscovered our independence with the backing of PAI Partners, in 2006 we returned to using our historical name of SPIE and created a new visual identity for our company. Our offer to sell 9% of our shares to our employees met with tremendous success as the issue was oversubscribed by 40%, a sure sign that our staff is committed to our corporate plan. The new SPIE's first year was one of profitable growth, with strong gains across the board and in particular in the energy area, showing that our strategy is in line with our clients' needs. In 2006, we also finalised our refocusing on our technical service activities by initiating the disposal of our SPIE Rail subsidiary to Colas.

2006 REVENUE:

+ 13.5% I.E. □3 BILLION

OPERATING INCOME FROM ORDINARY ACTIVITIES:

+ 24.4% I.E. □108.6 MILLION
