

A specialist subsidiary of the SPIE Group, SPIE Oil & Gas Services is an international company that provides services to the oil and gas industry.

SPIE Oil & Gas Services works with a variety of customers, such as oil companies, engineering firms and oil and gas contractors. It provides them with a full range of resources, skills and services for exploring and investigating new fields, building and operating facilities, and maximising production under optimal safety, cost, deadline and quality conditions.

Present in Europe, Africa, Asia-Pacific and the Middle East, SPIE Oil & Gas Services brings together 3 000 trained, loyal and valued individuals in 35 countries across 4 major business lines: well services and geosciences; engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) projects and services; asset support; and knowledge development. For more than 40 years, SPIE Oil & Gas Services has served as a top partner for developing innovative and tailored technical solutions.

With a global view of the market and resources that are readily available through its localised network, SPIE Oil & Gas Services delivers efficient and responsive solutions at any time and in any place, thanks to qualified teams who put their skills at the service of their customers. The company is true to its values, and to its quality, health, safety and environmental commitments.
