Maintenance - SPIE Ile-de-France Nord-Ouest wins a 5-year contract

Port handling company SOMABAMI (Société de Manutention du Bassin Minéralier) has entrusted the maintenance of the Arcelor ore terminals in Dunkirk to the Industrie Littoral Nord office of SPIE Ile-de-France Nord-Ouest. The five-year contract covers overall maintenance of ship unloading facilities, gantries, conveyors, and quaysides with guaranteed results. Services in the fields of electrical engineering, automatic control, variable-speed control and light mechanical engineering will be provided by SPIE Ile-de-France Nord-Ouest, while heavier mechanical engineering services will be provided by a consortium comprising Ponticelli and SPIE. The contract is worth a total of €2.8 million a year, €1.3 million of which will go to the Industrie Littoral Nord office. Contact
