Hamburg, December 5th, 2017 – SPIE, the independent European leader in multi-technical services in the areas of energy and communications, is holding today in Hamburg, Germany, an Investor Day which will focus on the Group’s German operations.

The objective of this event is to provide investors and financial analysts with more in-depth information on how SPIE has built a leadership position in the German multi-technical services market in the recent years, on its current position in the various segments of the market and on the future opportunities that lie ahead in Germany. Specific focus will also be made on the integration of SAG.

In just a few years, Germany has become SPIE’s second largest geography, a major contributor to the Group’s revenue and profits, and remains a key priority for future development.

The presentation will be available from our website www.spie.com.
